QUOTE OF THE DAY

"I am an artist... I am here to live out loud." – Emile Zola

"External success has to do with people who may see me as a model, or an example, or a representative. As much as I may dislike or want to reject that responsibility, this is something that comes with public success. It's important to give others a sense of hope that it is possible and you can come from really different places in the world and find your own place in the world that's unique for yourself." – Amy Tan

"There is a thin line that separates laughter and pain, comedy and tragedy, humor and hurt." – Erma Bombeck

"Little minds are tamed and subdued by misfortune; but great minds rise above them." – Washington Irving

"Giving up something that no longer serves a purpose, or protects you, or helps you, isn't giving up at all, it's growing up." – Laurell K. Hamilton

"Sometimes I think the surest sign that intelligent life exists elsewhere in the universe is that none of it has tried to contact us." – Bill Watterson

Wisconsin Artists and Arts Organizations: Participate in the New COVID-19 Impact Surveys Today! (links below)

Americans for the Arts and Artist Relief

Americans for the Arts and Artist Relief have released new versions of their COVID-19 Impact on the Arts Surveys. The findings will power our collective ongoing advocacy work to ensure the arts are part of the billions of dollars in relief and recovery funding.

We urge all arts and cultural organizations to complete the new COVID-19 Impact Survey for Organizations. This revised survey enables us to continue tracking the human and financial impacts of COVID-19 on arts organizations as well as understand the challenges with recovery and re-opening. All types of arts and cultural organizations should participate.

Americans for the Arts and Artist Relief, with support from the Ford Foundation, have launched a new COVID-19 Impact Survey for Artists. This revised survey enables the partners to gauge what is happening to our creative economy and address what is needed to provide relief and spur recovery. All types of creative workers should participate: practicing artists, culture bearers, educators and teaching artists, creative entrepreneurs, and hobby artists). Please share this link with your artist networks. Each week, Americans for the Arts publishes its updated COVID-10 Research Update that tracks the ongoing human and financial impacts of the COVID-19 crisis on the arts. As the virus continues to rage in our communities, so does its devastation of the nation's arts sector. Cancellations have taken place at virtually every arts organization across the country, 1 in 10 arts businesses doubt their ability to survive, and two-thirds of the nation's artists are now unemployed. Use this weekly update to keep informed.

FY 22 = $46,600.00; FY 23 = $6,600.00

Funding for Creative Economy Development Initiative Grants

FY 22 = $250,000.00; FY 23 = $250,000.00

"The Governor recommends providing funding for grants to businesses, local governments and business development organizations to provide products or services that: (a) have an origin in artistic, cultural or aesthetic content; (b) promote job creation; (c) enhance economic development; (d) promote arts education; and (e) incorporate workforce training and development."

Funding for a Mass Burial Monument Grant (at UW-Stevens Point)

FY 22 = $100,000.00

"The Governor recommends providing funding for a grant administered by the Arts Board for the design, production and installation of a permanent marker, on the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point campus, in recognition of the Native Americans who died due to a scarlet fever epidemic."
